From The Head Teacher's Desk

This week our Virtue and Value Of The Week is:

EXCELLENCE

"Perfection may prove to be an elusive pursuit but if you strive relentlessly for it you will most certainly achieve excellence!" Serenity

As we celebrate Black History Month here at St Antony's we have coined the theme: PROUD AND LIMITLESS!

We have consciously selected this theme because we want all our children to know that they should all be very proud of themselves and their heritage and celebrate what it is that makes them unique and special. We are also working with them to explore the lives of some iconic individuals who have all made EXCELLENCE their hallmark.

One of the icons that they are studying is Usain Bolt who was born in abject poverty in deep, rural Jamaica but he never once allowed his humble beginnings to determine how he would see himself-he never limited himself. One of his quotes proposes that "being second best should never be an option for anyone...instead we should all strive to be the best that we can be at whatever we chose to be -because only then, would we have served the purpose for which we were placed on this earth!" So, help your child to find their passion and go for it!

As parents and teachers we should raise our children to aim for excellence in all things because by doing so they will never have to say 'I did not try my hardest.' Instead, they will always be able to hold their heads high, knowing that they gave any task set before them, their absolute best! Like Para Olympians Kadeena Cox and Johnny Peacock, let us help our children to be able to rise above any challenge that they may encounter in life and go for gold! Let excellence be their goal.

A. M . Moore

Be a yardstick of quality. Some people aren't used to an environment where excellence is expected.
