From The Head Teacher's Desk

This week we celebrate the Virtues and Values Of:
CREATIVITY

Thought for the week:

"Creativity is using the senses to experience what everyone else has ... but thinking and applying the experience in a way no one else has thought of!" ....Serenity

This week we will focus on the virtues of Creativity

The Virtue of Creativity

As human beings we have an almost insatiable appetite for creativity in all its forms. It is for this reason that we are surrounded by new designs for everyday items such as clothes, shoes, phones, cars and especially toys and games.

Creativity is virtually impossible to achieve without applying our imagination. We take our inspiration for creativity often from what we know and have experienced first-hand and then we add innovation -turning the natural into the super-natural and the ordinary into the extraordinary.

It is our ability to be creative that drives us as a species ever Forward because as we have the unequalled capability and capacity to harness thoughts and ideas to produce everything from the space hopper to the space shuttle. When the first inventor of the wheel devised this bit of innovation- he or she would never have thought how over the centuries, this simple yet ingenious idea would revolutionise so many of the products that we simply cannot live without today. For example, travel and transportation internationally would come to a grinding halt without the use of the wheel both for their inner mechanisms as well as the actual wheels which keeps trains, planes and automobiles moving from place to place.

But who do we credit for our ability to be creative to? All we have to do is look around us at the natural world-nature in all its glory -and we will see evidence that God is truly creative and has passed this magnificent gift on to us! Let us use and apply it wisely.
